Set April 2 for Army and Navy Qualifying Tests

Seek Officer School Material in High Schools and Colleges

Prospective students for the Army Specialized Training Program and Navy College Training Program will take qualifying examinations in the study hall of Antioch Township High School at 9 a. m. on Friday, April 2. T. R. Birkhead, principal, announced today.

"Most boys accepted for either the Army Specialized Training Program or the Navy College Training Program will eventually become commissioned officers in the Army, Navy, Marine Corps or Coast Guard," Mr. Birkhead said. "The Army and the Navy will pay all expenses at the colleges of students selected on the basis of tests on April 2. Since there will be no further tests for some months, all high school students or recent graduates will have to take the April 2 examination to qualify for this training. This is an excellent opportunity for every ambitious boy, especially for those who are likely to be drafted within the next year."

The purpose of the tests is to aid in the selection of prospective officer material for the army, Navy, Marine Corps, and Coast Guard. The examinations are designed to test the aptitude and general knowledge of the candidates who will express a choice for the Army or Navy at the time of the examinations. Those who are selected for either the Army Specialized Training Program or the Navy College Training Program will attend college with all expenses paid by the respective services.

Fr. Charles Is Called to New Parish in Ariz. Has Been Rector of St. Ignatius' Church Here for Past Nine Years

The Rev. J. E. Charles, rector of St. Ignatius' Episcopal church in Antioch for the past nine years, and Mrs. Charles will leave the first of April for Winslow, Ariz., where Father Charles has been called.

Father Charles will have charge of St. Paul's Episcopal church at Winslow, a church dating back to the pioneer days of that region.

Winslow is a division point on the main line of the Santa Fe railroad, and is located west of the Petrified Forests and east of the Grand Canyon. The region is a Mecca for tourists, and one of the finest Fred Harvey hotels on the Santa Fe system adjoins the station.

Since they first arrived here in April, 1934, Rev. and Mrs. Charles have made innumerable friends throughout the Antioch area and have been held in high regard not only in their own parish, but in the community at large.

Announcement of their impending departure was made at the church services Sunday morning, and residents of the community have joined in extending best wishes for success in their new location. St. Paul's church, a larger parish than that of Antioch, is expected to offer Father Charles a wider field of leadership, and the call is considered a testimonial to the fine work he has done here.

Schools Will Conduct Air Raid Drills Monday

Antioch schools will participate in the second Lake county test drill for the Citizens' Defense corps, which has been set for Monday, March 29.

Both the Antioch Grade school and the Antioch Township High school plan to conduct air raid drills. Grade school students will remain at the school until 3:30 p. m., the time set for the drill. The siren at the high school will blow for two minutes at that time.

There will be no interruption of routine street traffic or general activities, the defense staffs announced, although all wardens, watchers and other staff members who can do so are being asked to participate.

Mrs. Mary Mann is recovering at her home from a slight stroke suffered Monday morning, at the home of her son, Robert Mann, and wife, while caring for their baby.

Antioch Women Bowlers Boost 'Bomber Fund'

Members of Antioch Women's bowling teams have contributed over $40 to the national "Buy a Bomber" fund being raised by women keglers throughout the country, according to Emma Phaler, secretary of the Women's International Bowling Congress, Inc.

"We are deeply grateful," says Miss Phaler, "for the wonderful donations we received. It was hard work, but we never received a single complaint. The comment generally was: 'We are so happy to contribute our bit, and wish it were more.' We have $100,000 to turn over to the U. S. War Department, plans for which are now being completed by our war service chairlady, Mrs. Violet Jean McClatchey."

The local donation was handled through the county organization in Waukegan which lists $1,151.00 toward the fund.

Keller's Bills Would Benefit Teachers-Farmers

Local Representative Is One of Most Active in General Assembly

A measure which would provide that $800 a year may be paid to any teacher regardless of his or her age desiring to retire on or after January 1, 1943 with 35 years of creditable service, has been introduced in the general assembly at Springfield by Representative Nick Keller. The bill is known as House Bill 152.

Rep. Keller is also co-sponsor of House Bills 251 and 252, exempting certain agricultural vehicles from license fees. Bill 251 amends the truck act to eliminate farm tractors transporting or drawing implements of husbandry, or used primarily in agricultural pursuits. Bill 252 amends section 9 of the Motor Vehicle Act, and provides that none of the provisions of the Act requiring registration of vehicles shall apply to farm wagons and that licensing provisions for tractors shall apply only to truck tractors.

House Bill 209, also introduced by Keller adds a section to the law authorizing the creation of fire protection districts. Under its provisions territory included in any fire protection district may be disconnected from the district and added to another district to which it is contiguous.

House Resolution No. 35 which was adopted by the House to investigate the catastrophe in which 85 persons were injured on the Chicago North Shore and Milwaukee railroad recently, was introduced by Keller.

The contention of Rep. Keller is that not more than one train should be within a signal block at any one time. The reason is obvious, as North Shore trains sometimes attain a speed of 80 miles per hour.

Draft Boards Prohibited From Releasing Names of Men Before Induction

New regulations just received from National Selective Service Headquarters in Washington now prohibit local selective service boards from furnishing news services, newspapers and radio stations with the names of registrants about to be inducted. The specific regulation states:

"Information concerning the names or the total number of men forwarded to the induction station on any call or during any period of time shall not be examined by or disclosed or furnished to anyone except when required in the administration of the Selective Service system and then only in compliance with these regulations."

National Headquarters informs us that this change in regulations was necessary because of the large number of complaints about extreme embarrassment to men rejected at the induction station after their names had been announced to the public as going into service.

The new regulations, however, provide that the local board may furnish to news services, newspapers and radio stations lists of registrants who have been accepted and inducted as well as the home address and the branch of service of each registrant. Such lists, the regulations state, should be prepared at a time and in a manner which will not unduly interfere with the normal operations of the local board. A list of registrants rejected cannot be furnished under any circumstances.

Red Cross Drive Reaches $1,400; Fund Still Grows

Additional Donations Expected to Increase Total to Around $1,600

The Antioch area's fine response to the Red Cross drive has even exceeded expectations, Chairman Walter I. Scott reports, with a total of $1,429.38 already on deposit in local banks.

Donations which are still coming in but have not as yet been included in reports should raise this sum to the neighborhood of $1,600, he estimates.

In addition to donors already announced, those who have made contributions include the following:

Mr. and Mrs. D. Wisner, Mr. and Mrs. Wolfenbarger, Mr. and Mrs. Williams, Mrs. Edith French, Mrs. Helen Cary, Mr. and Mrs. Pechousek, Mrs. Irving Carey, Mr. and Mrs. C. Sibley, Mr. and Mrs. F. Announce Salem Caucus Nominees

The caucus held at Salem, Wis., Saturday resulted in the following list of candidates:

Arthur Hartnell, town chairman; Joseph Greenwald, member of the board; Alfred Schmidt, town clerk. All are incumbents.

Arthur Bloss was nominated for town assessor, Arthur Bushing for justice of the peace. For constables, George Higgins, Homer Payne, and Pat Manning were nominees.

The only contest was for the office of town treasurer, between C. V. Cook and Ernest Wiedman. Joseph Fox, treasurer, for several terms, declined to run again.

Sons of Legion Drum Corps Starts Practice

The Antioch Sons of the Legion drum and bugle corps will start practicing about the middle of April, according to Otto S. Klass, advisor.

A number of former members are now serving in the armed forces. Klass states; and there are several vacancies for which additional players are being sought.

Persons interested in becoming members of the corps are asked to communicate with Klass. It is not necessary to be the son of a veteran, the advisor states.

The corps plans to take part in the annual Memorial Day parade here.

WHY NOT PULL TOGETHER?

The Antioch News, Antioch, Ill.

Dear Sir: I have been receiving the News for the last few weeks. I want to let you know how much I enjoyed reading the local news and to see names of many good friends I made during my seven years stay in Antioch.

Whoever made it possible for me to get the News, I thank you very much, indeed, and in my behalf, appreciate every kindly thought of our boys in the service.

Very sincerely, Pvt. Louis B. Guerrero.

LIEUT. JOHN NELSON

John W. Nelson, 25, who entered the army last May, has graduated from aviation school at Chandler, Okla., and has been commissioned a lieutenant. He is the son of Mrs. Anne Nelson of Lake Villa, and is a graduate of Wilmet High school. Lt. Nelson is now stationed at Austin, Texas.

List Point Values For Meat-Cheese; Rationing Monday

Point values that consumers will pay beginning next Monday morning, March 29 for meats, cheeses, fats and oils, and canned fish are shown on the "Official Table of Consumer Point Values" printed on page three of today's News. The table was released by the Office of Price Administration. Examination of this table, which every seller of the newly rationed foods will be required to display in his store, discloses that the meats and fats rations are relatively more liberal than the rations of processed foods.

Supply Procedures, Company Administration, Map Reading and other subjects designed to prepare her to step into an Army job now held by an able-bodied male soldier who will thereby be released for duty on the fighting fronts.

On completion of her training, she will be assigned to duty at an Army post, or be sent on to a WAAC specialist school. Or she may be selected to go to Officer Candidate School.

March 2, 1943 To the Antioch News and American Legion Post:

I wish to thank everyone for the News, and also the money order that I received a short time ago.

All of my buddies read the News and we all appreciate it very much. It is nice to know how every thing is going back home.

We have splendid weather here, and I've got to like it quite well. Thanks a million.

Sincerely yours, John R. White, U. S. M. C.

England, March 2, 1943

Dear Buddies— I just returned from a trip almost half around the world to find my bunk completely covered with mail and packages that had been collecting for quite some time.

Sorting through my mail I found your letter with the money order, news bulletin, and list of the other boys in the service. I want to thank you a lot. I think your news bulletin was swell and I hope you can continue to send them to us.

I got a picture of the sign in the park and it sure is a honey. I didn't realize that there were so many fellows in the service from home.

Things in general are going pretty good over here and there is plenty of entertainment if you want to look for it.

Well, I want to thank you again for the letter and I think you are doing a good job.

Yours truly, Jim Maplethorpe.

A. A. F. 76th College Training Det. Carroll College, Waukesha, Wis.

Dear Sirs:

I wish to take this opportunity to thank you for your gift subscription of the Antioch News. It is sure a treat to hear of the news back home and of my friends in the service.

I have completed by basic training, otherwise known as "boot camp," and have been transferred to Carroll College in Waukesha, Wis. Here I am (continued on page 5)

44 Complete Adult Evening School Course

Over 150 Attend Graduation Exercises Tuesday Evening

An audience of more than 150 persons attended the graduation exercises Tuesday evening at the Antioch High school where they witnessed an entertaining program and saw the 44 graduates of the Adult Evening school receive their diplomas.

In addition to a musical program and the presentation of special diplomas, several other features appeared on the program.

A comic skit by the Antioch Home Bureau unit, and a quiz "Kids" program were high lights of the evening.

George Eaton, a member of the class, spoke on behalf of the students on some of the reactions from the winter farm course in pork production.

A motion picture, "Ever Since Eden" was presented toward the end of the program.

According to C. L. Kuttel, evening school instructor, forty-four farm men completed the course and were presented diplomas by W. K. Hills, members of the High School board.

Here is a list of the graduates:

The ten weeks work in "Increasing Pork Production" is one of 2000 special courses offered in the Vocational Agriculture departments of Illinois high schools.

The Antioch course was one of the largest and most successful that has been conducted in the state.

Comes now the season when farmers start lookin' over the plowing machinery, housewives start cleaning the muddy footprints off the floor with shovels, and small boys brush up on their marble-rolling technique. But a note from the navy says there's a modern wrinkle. They don't give the boys sulphur and molasses for a spring tonic—they go modern and give 'em sulphathiazole pills. Anna-hoo, that's what we bin told.

Fallacy Exploded

It has been a common practice when more taxes were needed by the Federal government to show that British government income taxes are higher than our Federal income taxes.

Congressman Celler of New York, now shows that is but a half truth. He says: "The British government collected 90 per cent of the total tax collections of that country in the fiscal year 1941-42; whereas in the United States, the Federal government in 1941-42 collected only 01 per cent of the total taxes."

"In other respects—notably the absence of heavy local taxation, in the exemption of capital gains, and in the treatment of corporate dividends, life insurance premiums and pension contributions—the British tax system is less severe than ours."

"In a preliminary report prepared by the Legislative Reference Service of the Library of Congress, taxes reduced to a per capita basis were given as $101—Federal alone in the United States—and $187 in Britain. . . If State, local and other taxes were added to the $191 estimate—Federal—the total per capita burden in this country would be approximately $260. This estimate does not include increased taxes under the 1942 measure."

"Before we can pass fair and just tax laws, like for example a pay-as-you-go plan, we must first dispel the idea that Englishmen, comparatively, already pay more than we."

Big Fish Eat Little Fish

As federally sponsored power projects enlarge their field of activity, they step on the toes of municipally-owned power projects.

One of the latest examples is down in Texas where the Guadalupe-Blanco River Authority and the Lower Colorado River Authority tangled with the city of San Antonio when all three wanted to acquire part or all of the San Antonio Public Service Company.

The political ramifications of the deal are of interest to the rest of the country as they illustrate how the current program to promote Federal socialization of large segments of the electric industry destroys tax-paying private enterprise first, then local home rule, and finally, state's rights.

The pattern for these proceedings follows the world trend of recent years where the most powerful country swallows the less powerful country, until finally individual freedom is wiped out and only bureaucracy remains.

Well, it's up to the people. Their eyes should be open by this time. If they want to retain liberty and freedom of opportunity, they can reject political schemes to destroy private enterprise. This issue is out in the open at last.

"Are You Content?"

"If you are content with the present situation and with the present results in industry, in agriculture, and in our civilian life," said Secretary of War Stimson, "then I suggest that you go to one of our great Army camps and see our boys in uniform working. I suggest that you read the detailed dispatches from Tunisia and the Southwest Pacific about the fighting efforts of our soldiers. I suggest that you compare your comforts in life with theirs, and then ask yourself again—Are you content?"

Few persons in civilian life can say they have made any all-out war effort. Too many are still more interested in planning personal and "social gains," first.

The Way to Prevent Fire

Many of the safety requirements of the modern fire ordinance applicable to places of public assembly, which was drawn up by the National Board of Fire Underwriters subsequent to the Boston night club fire tragedy, could be carried out easily and promptly. Many fire deaths occur in such places because proprietors are unaware of the deadly danger of hazards created by temporary decorations, overcrowding, thoughtless changes in seating arrangements, inadequately marked exits and other dangers contingent upon confusion and crowds. The ordinance represents a scientific approach to these problems. It is written in language that the layman can understand. Many fires could be prevented by giving a copy of it to every person whose business involves large gatherings of people.

For example, it states that: "The aggregate clear width of doorways serving as required exits shall not be less than at the rate of 22 inches for every 100 persons to be accommodated. No exit doorway shall have a clear width of less than 34 inches, corresponding to a nominal 36-inch door, except that existing exit doorways having a clear width of at least 24 inches may be accepted." Much more information is given on the subjects of exits, including type of doors, marking and lighting, and stairways.

Combustible decorations receive detailed attention. They are the starting point of many fires and, under the ordinance, "shall be rendered flameproof."

Those responsible for lives in places of public assembly should urge adoption and enforcement of a modern fire ordinance of this nature.

Facts at Last

The Secretary of Agriculture has frankly said before the Senate Appropriations Committee: "Since I appeared before you a month ago, I have become increasingly alarmed about our inability to get enough farm labor to reach the goals we have established for farm production. I am more alarmed today than I was yesterday."

"Economic planners" have largely taken farm crops for granted like air and water—something the Lord provides. They have considered almost everything else an "essential" industry ahead of farming. They have a farmer so tied up with red tape restrictions that the time required in complying with them is actually cutting down farm production.

We are not living in horse and buggy days. A minority of our people on farms are feeding a majority of our people in cities. They can't do it without manpower and machinery, nor can they do it on a price basis that ignores farm production costs as compared with industrial production costs.

LAKE VILLA

Lake Villa Community Church
Methodist—W. A. MacArthur, Pastor
Sunday School—10:00 A. M.
Worship Service—11:00 A. M.

The Rev. MacArthur's sermon topic for next Sunday will be "The Sin of Being Ashamed," and you are very welcome at these morning services. The evening service at 8 o'clock will consist of special organ music and solos, preceding the showing of colored sound motion pictures depicting our neighbors on all sides of the world.

The W. S. C. S. will meet Wednesday, April 7, at the village hall for quarterly pot luck dinner to celebrate January, February and March birthdays of members and friends. The ladies will also be comforters and do fancy work besides taking part in the business meeting.

Mrs. Ben Cribb and infant daughter came home last week from the hospital. Mrs. Cribb's father, B. O. son and wife of Chicago, visited her on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Anderson of Chicago spent Sunday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. William McGlashan.

Mrs. Daisy Riney, who spent the winter with her daughter at Ishpeming, Mich., has returned to her home here.

The Royal Neighbors of Cedar Lake camp will meet at the village hall basement on Tuesday afternoon, March 30, for their next meeting.

Mrs. Nova Smithson of Waukegan spent last week with her friend, Mrs. Blumenschein.

The Red Cross surgical dressing unit sent in 1600 x33 dressings last Friday. Mrs. Gunnarson and Mrs. Messler took them in and assisted in the packing at Victory Memorial hospital. An all day institute will be held here on Friday to instruct the instructors in other dressings, and in the afternoon the Ingleside ladies will come in for instruction so as to have their own unit. More workers are needed to make these necessary dressings for our wounded boys. Hours are 9 to 4 on Mondays and Thursday, and Fridays from 1 to 4, except this week.

Joe Koelstra left Monday evening on a trip to Portland, Ore., to visit his sister, whom he has not seen for 40 years, since they left Holland. Mrs. Tina Meyer of Libertyville accompanied him.

A rationing board has been set up in the Village hall here and Miss Dorothy Jansky is on duty each day to take care of your rationing needs. Raymond Thompson is in charge of the board, which serves Lake Villa and Antioch.

Restrictions on Fertilizers May Not Hurt Yields

Urbana, Ill., March 18—Restrictions on fertilizer use should not seriously handicap Illinois farmers in following recommended soil management practices to aid in producing maximum yields this year.

According to mimeographed publication AG 1126 by L. A. Lang, assistant chief in soil experiment fields, University of Illinois College of Agriculture, there are no restrictions on limestone, rock phosphate, superphosphate, potash and phosphate-potash mixtures. However, fewer mixed grades will be available, and users will have to sign application blanks for all chemical fertilizers except 3-8-7, the victory garden fertilizer. Manufacturers will supply detailed application blanks.

Food Production Administration Order FPO 5, effective since January

it was not possible to have school the first of this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Fisher have moved from Antioch to the Elmer Williams cottage on Oak Knoll Drive.

Mr. and Mrs. Petru who occupy the Mosby cottage, entertained a number of Navy men and friends from Great Lakes at their home Sunday.

Russell Lasco has been confined to his home by illness during the past week.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Nielson are remodeling a cottage on Cedar Lake road, just off Grand avenue, and expect to move in this spring.

18, 1943, includes the following four restrictions which apply only to fertilizers containing chemical nitrogen:

1. No fertilizer containing chemical nitrogen may be used on small grain to be harvested for grain (wheat, oats, barley, rye, emmer and spelt.)

2. No person shall deliver or accept fertilizers containing chemical nitrogen for use on corn (not for seed production) in excess of 50 per cent of requirements prior to April 1, 1943.

3. Group A crops have priorities. General farm crops in this group are hybrid corn (for seed production only), soybeans, hemp, flax, castor beans, guar, cotton (staple 115 or longer) and peanuts.

With the exception of cotton, soybeans and peanuts, Group A crops may receive full amounts of chemical nitrogen fertilizer at rates per acre not to exceed those suggested by the state agricultural experiment station. This order also applies to canning crops, fruits and vegetables.

Growers may not use chemical nitrogen fertilizer on soybeans unless they have used it in the past, and then the rate of application may not exceed that previously used.

4. Crops not already mentioned are Group B, and fertilizer containing chemical nitrogen may not be used on them unless it has been used previously. Rates may not exceed those suggested by the experiment station.

Joseph Koukols to Reside in Chicago

Now making their home in Chicago are Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Koukol, whose marriage took place March 6 in St. Peter's church. The bride is the former Miss Frances Palaske, daughter of T. M. Palaske and Mrs. Julia Palaske. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John Koukol, Lake Marie.

The wedding was followed with a dinner for 25 members of the two families, at the Palaske home on 994 Spafford street, and a reception for 150 friends and relatives was held in the evening at the Koukol place at Lake Marie.

For the ceremony, at which the Rev. F. M. Flaherty officiated, the bride wore a gown of white satin fashioned in princess style and trimmed with seed pearls. She wore a full-length veil of tulle and carried carnations and sweet peas.

The matron of honor, Mrs. Alice Podboy, sister of the bride, wore a frock of blue taffeta and net. Miss Bernice Palaske, another sister, and Miss Una Nelson, bridesmaids, were similarly costumed, in yellow and pink, respectively. All carried bouquets of pink carnations, jonquils and iris.

Mrs. Palaske wore brown, with accessories in blue, and the bridegroom's mother wore a black ensemble with green accessories. Their corsages were of pink and white carnations.

John Koukol acted as best man. George and Daniel Palaske ushered.

JUDITH ANN KEULMAN CELEBRATES BIRTHDAY

Mrs. William Keulman, Jr., entertained at a party Sunday in honor of the first birthday anniversary of her little daughter, Judith Ann. Guests present were Mrs. Wallace Murrie and son, Jimmie, Mrs. William Keulman, Sr., Mrs. John Schatz of Salem, Mrs. Margaret Schatz of Kenosha, Mr. and Mrs. Willard Schneider of Trevor, and Lieut. Wilford Jennerich. A delicious luncheon was served.

LENTEN DINNER GUILD HALL, WED.

Another Lenten dinner will be served by the Ladies of St. Ignatius church at the Guild hall Wednesday, March 31, at 11:30. Adults 40c; children 30c.

Mr. and Mrs. F. B. Swanson are spending this week in Chicago.

MR. AND MRS. LEMPKKE PARENTS OF DAUGHTER

Mr. and Mrs. William Lempke are the parents of a daughter born Sunday, March 21, at Victory Memorial hospital, Waukegan.

Miss Barbara Bicknell who is attending school at Wayland Academy, Beaver Dam, Wis., is spending this week with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. R. Bicknell at their home at Chandler Lake.

Mrs. Selma Rhymer, Victoria street, is ill and is being cared for at the home of her son, Joseph.

Miss Lillie Ames who has been at the Lake County hospital for the past three weeks, was moved Sunday to the home of Henry Ames, near Antioch. Miss Ella Ames is still very ill at Lake County hospital.

The Rev. and Mrs. W. C. Henslee attended the funeral of a friend, the late Juanita McFall which was held at Franklin Park Wednesday. Rev. Henslee officiated.

Mrs. Raymond Burnette and children left Wednesday for their home in New York city. The children, Betty Joan and Jerry, had spent a month in Antioch with their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Sheridan Burnette.

Mr. and Mrs. G. Stockes, Mr. and Mrs. E. Stockes and Mr. and Mrs. E. Dolar of Berwyn, Mr. and Mrs. S. Dolar and Mr. and Mrs. V. Dolar of Cicero, Private Miles Dolar, of the Signal Corps, U. S. Army, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Otto Dolar, at Lake Catherine, Antioch, Sunday, Mar. 21.

Mrs. C. E. Hennings spent Wednesday in Waukegan.

Mrs. D. N. Deering spent a few days this week at Rockford the guest of her husband, Capt. D. N. Deering, who is serving at Camp Grant.

Murray Horton has been seriously ill for the past several weeks at his home on Park avenue, Antioch.

Mrs. Bert Bown is a patient at St. Therese hospital, Waukegan.

Mr. and Mrs. Russell Homan spent Sunday in McHenry with Clark Havens.

Don't forget the Lenten dinner at the Guild hall March 31, at 11:30.

Mrs. J. C. James celebrated her birthday anniversary Sunday at her home on Orchard street. Guests at dinner were Mr. and Mrs. Ralph James and family and Mrs. Louise Gilbert of Chicago and last but not least, J. C. himself.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE CHURCHES

"Matter" was the subject of the Lesson-Sermon in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, on Sunday, March 21.

The Golden Text was, "It is the spirit that quickeneth; the flesh profiteth nothing" (John 6: 63).

Among the citations which comprised the Lesson-Sermon was the following from the Bible: "Let no man deceive himself. If any man among you seemeth to be wise in this world, let him become a fool, that he may be wise. For the wisdom of this world is foolishness with God. For it is written, He taketh the wise in their own craftiness. And again, the Lord knoweth the thoughts of the wise, that they are vain" (1 Cor. 3: 18-20).

The Lesson-Sermon also included the following passages from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy: "The realm of the real is Spirit. The unlikeness of Spirit is matter, and the opposite of the real is not divine—it is a human concept. Matter is an error of statement. This error in the premise leads to errors in the conclusion in every statement into which it enters. Nothing we can say or believe regarding matter is immortal, for matter is temporal and is therefore a mortal phenomenon, a human concept, sometimes beautiful, always erroneous" (p. 277).

Mrs. Della Maas who has spent the winter in Chicago, returned to her home at Indian Point last week.

Doris E. Broesch and William Techert United in Marriage

At a quiet ceremony Friday, March 19, in Highland Park, Miss Doris Elaine Broesch became the bride of Pfc. William M. Techert, of the Auto Ordnance School, Fort Sheridan, Ill. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John E. Broesch, 1305 Seventy-third street, Kenosha. The bridegroom is the son of William F. Techert, Antioch.

Judge Henry Hansen officiated at the civil ceremony held in the Highland Park city hall.

The bride wore a suit of dusty pink with a hat of matching shade and brown accessories. Her bouquet was a corsage of blue-tinted and pink carnations.

Attending the couple were Mr. and Mrs. Robert Mortensen of Waukegan.

Over fifty persons attended the Lenten dinner served by the Ladies' Guild of St. Ignatius' church Wednesday at the hall.

Word from Arthur Maplethorpe states that he is getting the best of care and treatment at Veterans hospital, Downey, Ill., where he is convalescing from his recent illness. "Best regards to everyone," says Archie.

After reading about the severe weather Antioch has had recently, Mr. and Mrs. Len Burch write to invite their friends here to come to Los Angeles and thaw out.

What You Buy With WAR BONDS

Uncle Sam's lighter 37-millimeter anti-tank guns are dubbed "tank killers." They are attached to the infantry, not the field artillery, and cost approximately $6,500 each. They have proved particularly effective in anti-tank warfare.

They are mobile, mounted on automobile tires and can be rapidly whisked from place to place. Your purchase of War Bonds will help pay the cost of these field pieces so necessary for our Army in this War. Join the Payroll Savings Plan at your office or factory and let's "Top that ten percent" by investing at least ten percent of your income in War Bonds. U. S. Treasury Department

Gulf of Siam
French Indo-China and Thailand occupy most of the sweeping horseshoe curve of the Gulf of Siam's coastline. It is only at the entrance waters that the Malay states are involved. Burma has no outlet on the Gulf of Siam, though the Burmese-Thai border at one point is only 20 miles from the gulf coast. From Bangkok to Rangoon, Burmese capital and once the gateway to the famed Burma road, northwest across sea and land, is about 370 air miles.

Highly Technical
Because crude rubber undergoes chemical and physical changes through vulcanization and compounding, the process of reclaiming it from discarded rubber articles is a highly technical one.

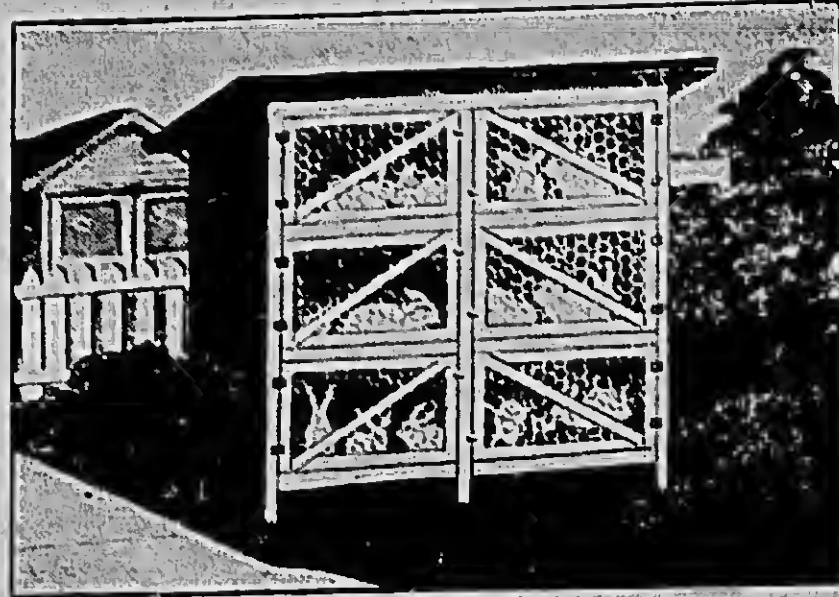

Save Usable Parts
Farmers who are junking old machinery can save many parts which may be of use in the repair of operating machinery of their own or of a neighbor. Agricultural engineers report that new machinery will be hard to get.

War Time FEEDING TIPS

Back Yard Rabbitry Easy Answer To War Time Food Rationing

Sanitary Hutches Can Be Built Quickly and Cheaply

No need to worry about meat rationing as long as you have a back yard and a few hours leisure time. Build a simple, inexpensive hutch, stock it with a buck and a couple of does—then let Nature take its course. In 90 days you'll have plenty of delicious domestic rabbit meat for your family table.

So says the local Purina Chow dealer who is sponsoring a wartime Food Production Program centered in the back yards of our community, and aimed at assuring each home owner his own meat supply.

"These war years will see a lot of new folks raising rabbits—people who never expected to do so," states the Purina Dealer. "With pork and beef scarce, it's not only patriotic but good sense to raise at least enough rabbit meat for one's own use."

In addition to providing meat for the table, such a sideline offers relaxation, education, health, and possible profit, the Purina Dealer states. It may, in fact, become an important family income producer. Most large scale rabbitries made such small beginnings.

A saw, hammer, nails, and scrap lumber are all that are needed to construct a simple inexpensive hutch like the one shown above. Plans are available through the local Purina Merchant.

Any of our readers interested in growing their own meat supply in the local Purina Dealer. Or write to Purina Mills, St. Louis, Mo. and ask for the free booklet, "Raising Rabbits—A Wartime Food Program for Your Own Back Yard."

Quaker Wore Red Robe
In 1790 a Quaker chemist by the name of John Dalton purchased a bright red robe, believing that it was gray in color. His friends chided him for his gaudy taste, causing him to realize that he could not distinguish colors. This is the first recorded case of total color blindness, says the Better Vision Institute.

Watch Your Step
Daily footsteps of individuals make a path for the race. Watch your step.

500,000,000
There are at least 500,000,000 shade trees on the thoroughfares of the United States.

During the winter, when the outside temperature is colder than indoors, heat will tend to leave the house, flowing through the walls and through the roof. Only the application of an efficient insulating material can hold back heat which is especially precious this winter when some fuels are being rationed.

Recoverable Rubber
One tire manufacturer estimates that 240,500,000 tires have been scrapped during 1937-1941, weighing about 6,450,022,000 pounds. They estimate about 40 per cent has already been reclaimed, leaving a surplus of 1,700,000 long tons. Assuming that of this surplus we could recover: 1937-39, 10 per cent; 1939, 25 per cent; 1940-41, 50 per cent. That would mean about 500,000 tons recoverable scrap from 1937-1941 tires alone.

Ralph E. Gussarson, Rt. 2, Antioch, has been enlisted for Navy Air Force pilot training under the current program which admits 17-year-olds. It was announced today by the Naval Aviation Cadet Selection Board in Chicago.

Cadet Gussarson, who attended Antioch high school, is among the first men in this area to be accepted under the new program. He played football at A. T. H. S. to prepare physically for the 15-month Navy air cadet training.

Antioch News, Gentlemen:

Just a few lines to let you know I receive the News every week. I look forward to receiving it too. That's why I'm writing to give you my new address so I won't miss a copy.

Desert Maneuvers for the 6th division has just finished. They sure were rough at times but that's what it takes if we expect to go places in this war. We're just getting started now. I have been so busy with field problems out here that I never did get around to thanking the American Legion and the people of Antioch for the money order they sent me for Christmas. However, I hope that it isn't too late yet. And I want to express my appreciation.

Again I say thanks to everyone.

Best regards,

The Antioch News
Antioch, Ill.
Dear Mr. Gaston:

My copy of the Antioch News usually catches up with me and I do appreciate receiving the paper. The hitch in the delivery time lies in the fact that my address has been changed to the above. Although not an Antioch resident myself, my brother, Raymond Gruidl, has enjoyed the pleasure of living in Antioch for a number of years. The rest of the family, including myself, have made frequent visits to see him and his family and have always enjoyed these trips and our short stays.

Not much of a reporter—so please excuse my failure to divulge any news. What I sincerely wish to do is express thanks to Mr. Louis J. Nielsen and the many other men who contributed so generously to the recent money order gift fund. It was a very fine gesture on everyone's part and it would be appreciated if they would receive my personal thanks through you.

With best regards to you all in Antioch,

Respectfully yours,
Lt. Floyd J. Gruidl.

Dear Sirs:

I am writing to let you know I enjoy getting the Antioch News very much and I wish to have my address changed so I will get my paper sooner, as we have changed camps twice in the last 6 weeks. I wish to thank you (the Legion) and the News personnel for what you are doing for the boys in service. For if they all appreciate getting the news from back in the home town as much as I do they really enjoy getting the Antioch News. And I don't think there are any of the boys that don't like to get the paper. I always read it from front to back and enjoy every bit of it—even the want ads.

camp, just a half mile from our loading dock. This is what we call a hot camp and we have 10 men in each hut and we have a swell bunch of boys in this man's navy. Since I was called to active duty with the navy I have traveled about 5000 miles across our good old United States and now am ready to be on the move again. But this time on water. All the boys here seem to be in the best of moods and all are ready to go over and do their bit to make our country what we call a safe place to live. We have the best of fighting material, also have the best of eats here. Uncle Sam takes good care of his boys so we intend to do the same for him.

Well, news is scarce in here, as the life is about the same every day. So will close for this time.

As ever, I remain, one of the Sea Bees from Antioch,

Antioch, Ill.

Dear Mr. Gaston:

I received the money order for $8 today and I was very glad to receive it. I am saving for my furlough which will be April 14 and the money will help the expense situation out a lot.

I want to thank you for sending the money and I want to thank Mr. Nielsen also for the money and for his thoughtfulness to the boys in the service. It is a good thing to be doing for the fellows and I am sure they appreciate it as much as I do and I appreciate it a whole lot.

I used to work for Louie a few years ago so I am especially proud of his patriotism and loyalty to us fellows.

Yours truly,
Pfc Richard Davis.

Dear Editor:

I finally found time to write and thank you for the paper you send each week. It's great to know what's going on back home and I don't think there's a much better way of finding out besides reading it out of a paper. We've been doing an awful lot of training down here in Louisiana and there's no time to do much of anything else.

The weather is nice down here now, sun shining all the time—except when it rains, and it does that quite often down here.

I've got a little poem here that I would like to have you publish in your paper—the title is

Second Alcatraz

Down in the Louisiana swamp, Camp Claiborne is the spot, Drilling in the terrific heat, In the land that God forgot, Just sitting here and thinking Of what we left behind.

We hate to put on paper,

What's running thru our mind,

We've washed a million dishes,

And peeled as many spuds,

And put out many a dollar

To clean our dirty duds,

Many a mile we've marched

And yet to leave our post,

To the wee hours we've studied

The course we wanted most,

Out in the brush with a rifle,

Down in the ditch with a pick,

Doing the work of a nigger,

And too darn tired to kick

Down with the snakes and lizards,

Down where the man gets blue,

Down at the very bottom;

A thousand miles from you,

Even at night the heat keeps coming,

It's more than a man can stand,

No, we're not convicts,

We're defenders of our land,

We are the soldiers of the infantry

Earning a meager pay

Guarding people with millions

For a buck six hits a day,

Living only for tomorrow,

And only for our gals,

Hoping that when we return,

They aren't married to our pals.

We don't mind the Army life,

And wearing buttons of brass,

But drilling here in Camp Claiborne,

Is like serving in Alcatraz.

These obstacles we've confronted,

They are very hard to tell,

Let's hope it's nice in heaven,

'Cause we've served our time in hell.

It's not really as bad as all that down here but you know how us soldiers are and I'm sure anyone at home who reads that would get a big kick out of it.

I look forward to getting your paper each week—and next week I'll be over-joyed to see this little ditty

in it. There goes the howl whistle now, so I guess I'll close.

Hoping to see everyone soon,

Cpl. Tommy Crawford.

Future Farmers Plan to Double Production

(By Lawrence Dunford)

The Future Farmers under Mr. Kuttel are really stepping this year. They are going to be a big help to Uncle Sam and double their work next year.

Following are boys who have projects and are doing all they can to help win the war:

Pork Projects: Ted Carlson, Lawrence Dunford, Donald Irving, Robert Prince, Robert Sheldon, Milton Smith, and Alan Thain.

Beef Projects: Ted Carlson, Elmer Hartnell, Fred Hockstra, Elmer Hockstra, Robert Hughes, Loren Leger, Raymond Scott, Alan Thain, and Richard Wells.

Sheep Projects: Harland French, Elmer Hartnell, and Raymond Taft.

Poultry Projects: Arnold Bolton, Ted Carlson, James Crichton, Lawrence Dunford, Walter Effering, Elmer Hartnell, Donald Irving, Robert January, Robert Kufak, Gordon Liverson, William Message, Clifford Miroche, Dorothy Nedbal, Milton Smith, and Max Wurzbach.

Garden Projects: Earl Brixen, Lawrence Dunford, Maurice Edwards, and Lincoln Garwood.

Crop Production: Robert Edwards, Robert Hughes, and Norman Wilhelm.

Bookkeeping: Ray Scott.

Shop Production: William Dow.

Most of these boys are upper class students and have thus far succeeded in their Future Farmer work, but there are some who have just recently become Future Farmers and are going to stick right with it.

Shorthand Classes Must

Pass Yearly Requirement

(By Billie May Runyard)

Like the enrollees in any other course, Shorthand students must be able to pass a certain "yearly requirement." The "yearly requirement" for students of the beginning class is to take dictation on new material at sixty words a minute for five minutes, their transcription must have less than fifteen errors. When they have done this they have not only met the main requirement of the course but if such is attained on certain articles published monthly, they qualify for the sixty word certificate. This award is offered by the Gregg Writing Company.

Those who have qualified for the above mentioned certificate in the beginning class are: Kathleen Fields, Betty Gossell, Shirley Harness, Alice Harvey, Edna Pedersen, Judy Pregoner, Billie May Runyard, Irene Ryan, Rose Marie Zellhofer. These names have been arranged in alphabetical order, not in accordance with the number of errors made. Two of the girls passed this test with only one error. The greatest number of errors made was nine.

Now we will be striving for our eighty word certificate, but for the benefit of those who have not as yet attained the sixty word goal, we will be having some sixty word dictation tests as before. It is not unusual for a student of a beginning class to pass the eighty word dictation test.

The "yearly requirement" for the advanced group is one hundred words a minute for five minutes with twenty-five or less errors. Like the other class this must be on new material. Those who have passed this test successfully this year are: Violet Flint, Loretta Kuligowski, Sarah McBride, Dorothy Morton, Roman Pfannenstill, Virginia Poulsen, Doris Strang. As of the other winners, the names are arranged in alphabetical order—not the degree of accuracy. One person made this with no errors, the highest number of errors was fourteen.

The seniors who have passed their "one hundred" will be trying for the one hundred and twenty word certificate, although the former one hundred word dictation tests will be continued for the benefit of those who have not yet made the grade.

WEEKLY NEWS ANALYSIS

See-Saw Offensives Rage on Red Front As Nazis Hurl New Divisions Into Drive; Battle Lines Drawn for Skip-Year Taxes; Aerial Action Paces Activity in Tunisia

(EDITOR'S NOTE: When opinions are expressed in these columns, they are those of Western Newspaper Union's news analysts and not necessarily of this newspaper.)
Released by Western Newspaper Union.

With snow underfoot, these muffer-bound, ear-muffled members of the New York Giant pitching staff are going through their paces in one of the most unusual spring training seasons in baseball history. Their camp is located at Lakewood, N. J. Left to right: Cliff Melton, Van Mungo and Carl Hubbell. Southernmost of all major league training camps is that of the World Champion St. Louis Cardinals, at Calro, Ill.

GIVE AND TAKE:

In Russia

Kharkov had fallen once more to the Nazis and still they pushed eastward. This was the story from the Ukraine sector of the broad Russian front. In another important sector, further to the north, the Russians were having the better of it as their four-pronged offensive swept swiftly through the area around Smolensk.

This and the fighting around the anchor point of Orel were more immediately important to the Russian cause than what happened at Kharkov. For Orel serves as the turning point between the southern and central fronts. Hitler could ill afford to lose this base.

While Russian sources admitted that Kharkov was important they also pointed out that a strong defense line had been established beyond the city and further claimed that Hitler's troops found nothing but dead Germans on the city's streets when they took it. Military experts reasoned that Hitler had thrust about 25 fresh divisions into his drive for that point. Moscow said that the reason Germany wanted the city was to atone for the great losses suffered by the Nazis at Stalingrad in midwinter.

TUNISIA:

Aerial Action

Bad weather which has slowed ground activity in Tunisia has been no barrier to the growing Allied Air force.

As a prelude to General Montgomery's expected push against Marshal Rommel, Allied planes have been pounding the Mareth line. An elaborate system of fortifications hewed into the mountains, this line stands between the bulk of the opposing armies.

After a month of offensive operations against the American and British lines in central and north Tunisia, Rommel has pulled in his wings. Although the Allies restored much of their original position, they have concentrated their effort on softening up the enemy from the air.

Allied air operations have been particularly extensive over Sicily. American and British bombers have been pounding the great Axis base at Palermo. Prosinone and Pozzallo were the latest Sicilian centers hit.

MORE TIRES:

On April 1

Liberalizing the rationing for the second time, Price Administrator Prentiss Brown expressed the belief that all motorists would be able to keep their cars on the road as the result of the release of additional tires by Rubber Administrator William Jeffers.

Effective April 1, grade 2 tires will be available to drivers with gasoline mileage allowances exceeding 240 miles a month. This includes most B, C and D card holders. Motorists eligible for 300 or more miles will be allowed a limited number of grade 1 tires, the highest grade casing. However, all must be obtained with certificates issued by local ration boards.

These changes do not affect A card holders, who are eligible for used or recapped casings. Most of the rationing formalities on recapped tires have been removed by Brown.

HIGHLIGHTS . . . in the week's news

RATION: Food ration points on blue stamps in April will remain at 48.

DEEP WATER: Representative William Rowan of Chicago has prepared a resolution asking for the deepening of the Illinois waterway and Mississippi river to 12 feet to permit major navigation from the Great Lakes to the Gulf.

LOOK PRETTY: To cut absenteeism among women workers employed seven days a week and eight hours a day, the N. A. Woodworth company of Detroit has installed a beauty shop in the plant. Furnished in the modern manner, the shop has all of the latest beauty equipment and charges the regular prices. Woodworth employs approximately 3,000 women.

FLARE-UP:
In France

Hopeful eyes turned for several days on the high mountain passes near the French-Swiss frontier where large numbers of French patriots had mobilized to launch guerrilla warfare against Italian and German troops. For the most part, these forces consisted of young Frenchmen who were being recruited for forced labor inside Germany.

First reports from Zurich and Berne, Switzerland, indicated that British RAF planes were dropping guns and ammunition to the men waiting in the Alps. German sources soon claimed that many of the men were deserting because of the lack of such supplies. This claim was substantiated by neutral reports.

Much support and advice to the movement was given by the Algiers radio. This source claimed that Italian troops in the area were refusing to help pry the patriots loose from their positions.

An ultimatum had been issued by the Germans before the fighting began but the French declined it saying that they were ready to fight through to the end.

While non-Axis nations were cheered by the news of the resistance there was little hope that the uprising could spread far.

DINNER TABLE:
And Points

While American housewives were studying what the effects of the rationing of meat, canned fish, butter, cheese and edible fats would be on their family diets, the Office of Price Administration announced that April points for processed foods would be same as in March—a total of 48 per person. These would be the points on the blue stamps let-

RATION DATES

March 29—First day for rationing of meats, canned fish, butter, cheese, edible fats and oils.
March 31—Final date for first inspection of passenger car tires for "A" card holders and motorcycles; last day on which A, B and C stamps in war ration book 2 may be used. (Stamps of second ration period may be used from March 25.)
April 12—Expiration date for Period 1 fuel-oil coupons;
May 31—Last day for use of stamp No. 12, good for five pounds of sugar.
June 15—Last valid date for stamp No. 17, good for one pair of shoes.
September 30—Expiration date for Period 5 fuel-oil coupons.

tered D, E and F in war ration-book No. 2.

In announcing the meat rationing, government officials were careful to point out that while the total amount to be consumed by the nation would be cut 12 to 15 per cent, there would still be enough meat to allow healthy diets for U. S. citizens.

Meanwhile the department of labor reported that the average increase in food costs throughout the nation during the past month had been 0.5 per cent.

SECRET AIRFIELDS:
Held Dutch Harbor

The story behind Japan's failure to seize Dutch Harbor, the navy's Alaskan stronghold, is due largely to the "existence" of two imaginary salmon packing companies. The facts have just been revealed.

The two packing firms were no more than covers for one of the Alaska defense command's most remarkable jobs—the secret construction of two airfields to guard Dutch Harbor. When the Japs approached the naval base last June 3 (with two carriers, three cruisers, eight destroyers and four transports—perhaps as strong as the forces which struck at Pearl Harbor) they understood there was no airfield within 800 miles of Dutch Harbor.

In the midst of their assault the Japs found themselves hit from behind by land based planes and bombed and torpedoes by land based planes. Their spy work—so successful at Pearl Harbor—had failed.

LITTLE STEEL:
Formula Fades

A source of comfort to almost every labor union official is the fact that the Little Steel formula is fast disappearing as a factor in wage increases approved by the War Labor board. The bulk of wage adjustments now is based on "inequalities."

Reason for the disappearance of the much-debated formula is that a majority of employees already have received the 15 per cent general increase permitted by the formula as a cost-of-living adjustment. WLB officials state that scarcely any important branches of industry have not raised wages at least that much since January 1, 1941.

JAP FORCES:
Above Australia

Word from Allied headquarters in the South Pacific indicated that Japan's invasion forces appeared shifting to the ring of islands north of Australia.

This new menace was emphasized when 49 enemy planes—25 bombers and 24 fighters—attacked Port Darwin in Australia. It was one of the heaviest raids in months, although the Japs were driven off with only slight damage and casualties.

MILLBURN

William Ferry, Detroit, Mich., spent Sunday with the Bauman family and his sister, Mrs. Les. Dietrich.
Mrs. Everett Trux left Friday for New York, being sent by the Johns-Manville Co. for a two months course in accounting.

Don Holem, who was taken to Victory Memorial hospital Monday evening, suffering with bronchial pneumonia, was able to return home Saturday.

Harold Bonner, a student at Michigan State college, is spending ten days vacation with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Bonner.

Mrs. Harness, who has spent several months at the home of her son, Thomas Harness at Millburn, and with her daughter in Waukegan, returned to her home in Chrisman, Ill., Friday.

Marvin Shogan of Chicago, former student at Michigan State College, spent the week-end with Harold Bonner.

Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Denman, Margaret, Robert and Alice Denman, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Denman and Frank DeYoung were dinner guests at the home of Mrs. Minnetta Bonner in Grayslake Sunday.

Hickory Unit of Home Bureau met at the home of Miss Vivian Bonner Thursday afternoon, March 18. Mrs. Volk gave the major lesson, "Meeting Our Protein Requirements by the use of Meat and Alternatives." She showed the use of kidney, heart and liver, when she prepared liver patties, glazed heart, and kidney casserole, which was later sampled.

George Cade of Pomona, Kansas, is spending several weeks with his son, the Cecil Cade family on the Hyatt farm.

The J. T. A. is sponsoring a card party at the school house Saturday evening, March 26, 500 and luncheon will be played.

The Ladies Aid society meeting, which was scheduled for Thursday, April 1, will be postponed until the following Thursday, April 8. Dinner will be served by the following committee: Mrs. Austin Savage, Mrs. Emmet King, Mrs. Will Thompson, Mrs. Harrie Tillotson, Mrs. Daisy Webb and Mrs. Louis Ruschewski.

Attend church services each Sunday during Lent. Rev. Messersmith's (topic for Sunday, March 28, will be, "Along the Road.")

The monthly church board meeting will be held at the Scott Miller home Friday evening, March 26. Board members' wives are also invited.

Judging Distance
The ability to judge distances varies among drivers. It has an important bearing upon moving safely in traffic, especially on two-lane highways. Every driver should study and understand his visual limitations in judging distances.

Insulation Dollars Save Fuel Dollars
The insulation dollar is the most desirable building investment, because the reduction of heat loss decreases the amount of fuel needed. Within the well insulated home, where warmth is steadily and definitely maintained, sudden temperature changes and extreme low temperatures do not affect the comfort of the occupants, say Fir-Tex engineers. Average outside temperatures in the United States range from 25 to 62 degrees Fahrenheit.

Watch Laundering Accessories
Watch the little laundering accessories. A dirty clothesline or clothespins may undo all your good work. Check these, and whenever they need it, wash them in soap and water. While you're at it, put on a clean ironing board cover.

Members of the West Kenosha County Fair association, holding their annual meeting at the Wilmot high school Tuesday evening, re-elected five directors whose terms expired this year. Those re-named to the county fair board include William E. Thompson, Somers; Eldyn A. Pitzer, county superintendent of schools; Harry Hansen, Woodworth; M. M. Schnurr, Wilmot, and George Price, Paris.

Following the annual meeting a directors' session was held and officers of the fair association were re-elected for the coming year. The re-elected officers include M. M. Schnurr, president; Ben Kaskin, vice-president; John VanLiere, treasurer; E. V. Ryall, secretary, and Mrs. M. M. Schnurr assistant secretary and assistant treasurer.

In the meeting of the fair association members, a discussion of whether the fair will be conducted this year was taken up. After the discussion, the matter was left to the decision of the fair directors. Last July the directors went on record as favoring the suspension of fairs in the county for the duration of the war.

Miss Charlotte Pacey entertained Wednesday evening, March 17, on her seventeenth birthday anniversary for fifteen of her high school classmates. Keenness of Vision

Every motorist should have his vision checked occasionally, and tuned up when necessary. Only 33 states test eyes of new applicants for driver licenses, and less than a handful of states require periodic check-ups. It is up to the motorist to keep his eyes tuned up for sharpest vision.

Judging Speed

Eyes with good co-ordination—that work together in unison—are needed to gauge the speed of other cars. An error of a split second at a crossing frequently results in an accident. Studies indicate that substantial numbers of automobile drivers have low ability to judge distance—and don't know it.

Filled With Soldiers

St. Hyacinthe, Quebec, an industrial city 48 miles south of Montreal, was founded in 1760 and is known for its Casavant organs and farming machinery. It is now a large army training center.

HOSPITAL NURSING SCHOOL ON STATE ACCREDITED LIST

The Victory Memorial hospital has been notified by Frank G. Thompson, director of the department of registration and education, that the Jane McAlister school of nursing of the hospital has been placed on the list of accredited schools of nursing in Illinois, the effective date being March 1, 1942, when the school was reopened.

The school of nursing, which was founded at Jane McAlister hospital in 1909, had been closed in 1933 because of the depression. The school graduated its last class in 1936.

During 1941 the size of the hospital was increased to 135 beds. Because of the shortage of nurses in the North shore area, as well as throughout the nation, the board of directors decided to reopen the school of nursing. During this period the school has been conducted under the co-operation of the nurse division of the department of registration and education.

The first class of 12 students was admitted on March 2, 1942.

The board of directors of the Victory Memorial hospital is composed of 13 persons representing various organizations throughout Waukegan and the community.

A Dark Color

Appearance: Reclaimed rubber is generally a dark colored or black plastic solid, slightly tacky, usually with a strong odor of chemicals, although odorless reclaims are made. Composition: It contains not only the rubber in the original product but many compounding ingredients that were in the original product as well.

Color Vision Declines With Age

Recent studies indicate that ability to distinguish colors diminishes with age, reports the Better Vision Institute. In a study of more than 7,000 workers, it was found that 70 per cent of the men under 30 years of age could pass certain color discrimination tests. Only 35 per cent of the men over 50 years were able to pass the tests.

Thailand's Long Border

For a country of about 200,000 square miles—an area a little less than that of France—Thailand has a remarkably long border. This results largely from the long, slim "stem" extending more than half-way down the gantling Malay peninsula. The Gulf of Siam offers adequate space for large-scale naval and air action. About 500 miles long, it is 200 miles wide at the entrance, and at least that wide up to the headwaters which narrow into the small inner bay leading to Bangkok, Thailand's capital. Fairly shallow water is the rule. Maximum depth is estimated at 300 feet.

Lively Center of Excursions

Tourists were attracted to Mogador on the Moroccan Atlantic coast, the year around by its mild climate and broad bathing beaches. It was a lively center of excursions to contrasting interior regions of rugged mountains, swift streams and fertile valleys of olive groves and orchards. Mogador was built in 1764 as a rival port to Agadir and as a harbor for the war vessels of the sultan of Morocco. France seized the town in 1844, yielded possession in 1906 to brigands, and then ousted the captors by naval action.

Easier to Process

Properties of Reclaimed Rubber: Less absorbent of solvents than crude. More uniform and easier to process than crude, and has a faster rate of cure. Usually lower in tensile strength and lower in resistance to abrasion than crude rubber.

Cards, Besides Parcels

According to a recent survey men in our army voted smokes and waterproof watches as Christmas gift favorites. The sailors want Santa to bring them first a waterproof watch and then a portable radio. But, men in both services said that they wanted Christmas gift cards in their holiday parcels.

James Stearns, state deputy fire marshal, was called to Geneva Monday for a grand jury investigation in an arson case in which a youth was accused of setting fire to a building in revenge for being blamed for the killing of a chicken at the place where he was employed.

Eye Dominance

Three out of four persons, studies indicate, have one eye which does most of the seeing, with the other eye lagging along. This is known as eye dominance. Surveys have shown that automobile drivers are prone to accidents on the side of the weak eye. Persons with a lagged right eye, for example, are likely to side-swipe another car when passing or cutting in.
